dedication

Coach Marc Schuerfeld: "Livin' the dream."

It is our pleasure to dedicate the 2015 Memini to Mr. Marc Schuerfeld. He has inspired thousands of CCHS students, not only as a teacher, but as a beloved coach.

Chicopee historian Steven Jendrysik, a former colleague at Comp, wrote an article about "Schuerf" for The Republican in 2013. Jendrysik recalls a young Schuerfeld as a Chicopee High football player: "The kid always knew what was going on." After graduating in the same class with Mr. Morissette and Ms. Goudreault, Schuerfeld majored in Criminal Justice at Westfield State, intending to become a state trooper. While in college, he began coaching baseball, basketball, and football. These experiences as a coach led him to a career in education.

As a teacher, Schuerfeld has arranged many memorable events for the benefit of his students. Due to his efforts, Black Hawk helicopters landed on the football field, K-9 units demonstrated in the gym, and students took field trips to both courthouses and correctional facilities. He really brings the book work to life.

As Coach Schuerfeld, he has shown similar dedication. He became the head coach of our football team in 2003 and led the Colts to the school's first Super Bowl win in 2006. Beyond his many victories on the field, Schuerf has positively influenced his players off the field as well. He constantly stresses the importance of excellent grades and behavior with his athletes, and has no problem getting personally involved with making sure these students are making good choices ("Stay away from Susie's house!") As a result, Mr. Schuerfeld has helped to shape countless young people into respectful, responsible adults.

He loves Cape Cod, the Oakland Raiders, Star Trek, dogs, and his fiancée Noreen.

Former colleague and co-class advisor Stefan Czaporowski, principal of Westfield Vocational Technical High School, sums up: "Mr. Schuerfeld was a pleasure to work with for twelve years. He truly cares about students and consistently goes above and beyond to ensure their success."

He is a teacher, a coach, and a role model. We are proud to know him.

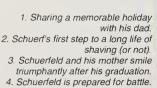

Right: Little Schuerf was quite the charmer! Top: Enjoying a nice day with late, great Kaiser. Bottom: An avid sportsman, Schuerfeld displays the catch of the day.

5. The coach in action!

our class

A History in Pictures

freshman year

Freshmen are friends, not food!

1. Mia Ceria, Orrie Baray-Forget, Sara Salloum, Brandon Clark, Chance Sliwa, Jon Rose, and Lenin Diaz prepare to rack up some spirit points. 2. Michael Piedra, as Danny Zuko, and Tiersen Willette-Lopez, as Frenchie, take center stage in the Drama Club's production of Grease. 3. Clockwise: Marissa Micgiel, Andre Jones, Bryan Michon, Dat Ho, Matthew Morissette, Chhumnith Chea, Joseph Perry, Joseph Robert, Kyle Mrozinski, Frank Harvey, Joshua Rodriguez, and Santa Daletto ham it up in math class.

4. Casey Ramos is amused by something the teacher said. 5. Denzel Gonzalez works on a masterpiece 6. The Mean Green Machine prepares for Color Day 2012.
7. Dylan English is in the 2 one.

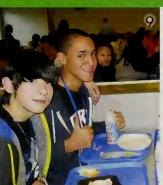

8. Savannah Lafontaine brightens up the soccer field. 9. Jordan Gagnon and David Ortega share a booth at lunch with. . . 10. Chance Theriault, Jon Martone, and Stephanie Storozuk. 11. Daniel Marchia, would you care to share the joke with the rest of the class?

4. Brenda Pedraza and Jordan Chmura partner up in science. 5. Samantha Conner jazzes up the Holyoke St. Patrick's Parade. 6. Alecia Cestroni and Alexis Wanzo take a break between classes. 7. Joe Trombley is ready 12 to rumble.

1. Haley Regan assembles holiday greenery in Horticulture. 2. William Nardi, as Lefou in Beauty and the Beast, has either had an epiphany or a sudden attack of indigestion. 3. clockwise: Ashley Otero, Abby Lapierre, Yasmeen Smola, Taisha Aponte, Jailyn Vega, Desiree Walter-Drobiak, Janiah Alamo, and Kayla Brodeur channel Beyonce during the Spirit Rally.

8. Bryan Michon and Kris Murphy are Soul Men. 9. Brianna Machnacz and Amanda Sutton are on the lookout for monsters. 10. Anthony Montero gives Lenin Diaz a lift. 11. Myranda Brault twirls through the 13 spotlight.

junior year We won't turn our backs on you!

1. Alexis Torres sports a double-breasted suit and an attitude in Guys and Dolls. 2. Emily Croiser and Lauren Sittard dance the night away at junior prom. 3. Patrick Byrnes, Jessica Major, Sean Buxton, and Rachel Beaulieu prepare to use their big brains to dole out some pain to the other classes during the Spirit Rally.

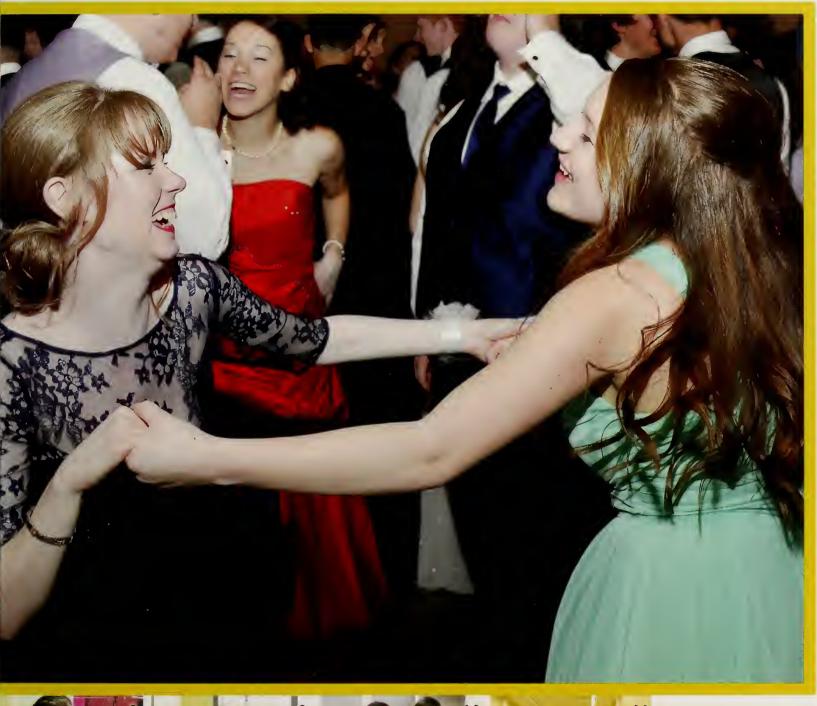

4. Sebastian Colon Aponte is amazed at his prom date's mad skills on the dance floor. 5. Najih Alexander knows just what's cookin'. 6. Peter LaPointe most likely deserves the noogie Danielle Beaudreault is serving up. 7. Justin Adamczyk is dapper at Open House.

8. Alycia Baker and Austin Hanna: "Roman" the halls, as usual. 9. Ethan Ferrara is looking right through the camera. 10. Which Robert twin is Joe, and which is Brandon? Only their parents know for sure. 11. Harper Laino and Samara Smith give junior year two. . . er, four thumbs up!

4. Nick Hebert stresses over the many college oppportunities posted in the hall. 5. Fabiola Hernandez-Ortiz, Najih Alexander, and Wiljanet Cornier-Santiago prepare for the deluge of seniors flooding Compaccino's. 6. Daniel Marchia finds a new friend. 7. Christopher Kindness is always ready with a tripod!

senior year We're all in this together!

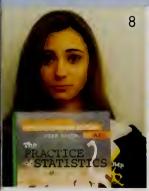

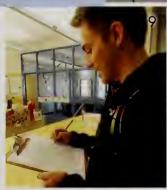

- 1. The light at the end of the tunnel: from preschool until senior year, we prepare for the moment when we receive our diplomas.
- 2. Kiara Spells and Mamie King: "What are you looking at? It's not like we wear this every day!"

 3. Samara Smith cruises into the student lot, ready for another day of senior year.

8. Jillian Devlin stresses over AP Stats. 9. Bailey Gadreault signs in for senior privileges. 10. Brittany Roy and Erin O'Donnell find a friend galloping through the hallway. 11. Morgan Hiersche and Joe Robert cheese it up during a photo shoot. 17

TYBBIE'S COBMES

"It was a true pleasure to coach this year's team in my first season as coach at my alma mater. In particular, the seniors led by example, both on and off court, in demonstrating the work ethic, character and winning culture required for the future of the program. This season's successful Division 1 playoff appearance culminated with a win against Cathedral, Comp's first playoff win in 9 years. The foundation has been set. LET"S GO COLTS!!"

Video Production (FilmDub Club)

FilmDub Club explores the art of making independent film. Giving students access to high-end digital video production tools, and focusing on every stage of the creation process from pre-production to post-production, we produce short films from beginning to end. Our films derive from concepts developed, written and directed by student members, and feature student actors, faculty and interested community members. FilmDub also produces Comp's annual LipDub. Our club conceptualizes, plans with administration, coordinates shops, sports and other extra-curriculars, then films and edits the big shoot day into the final LipDub. And with a cast of 1500, that is one doozy of an independent film!

Who would have thought that creating a yearbook could be fun? From designing the cover at the end of junior year, to writing these last paragraphs at the end of the journey, our lives have changed forever. As editors, we strove for perfection from cover to cover. We tried to choose great photos and to spell all of the names correctly (sorry if we missed yours).

The Memini staff has done its best to ensure an excellent book. and by our standards, we have accomplished our goal. In addition, our semi-dysfunctional "family" has truly bonded over the course of this year. We have preserved memories in the pages of this book, and created memories of all the times we have laughed over the nonsense that has occured in the class. From the athletes, to the nerds, to the drama kings and queens, we have learned to set aside our differences and work as a team to complete the 2015 Memini: I Remember.

Enjoy!

Kali Carvide

Kali,

You were born so beautiful, with those brilliant bright brown eyes,

We loved to rock you for hours, to sooth those tired cries.

Through your young and growing years, your passions grew with fire.

You watched and sang with Barney to pass your morning hours.

The time we spent watching you grow,

Gave us a great pride you will probably never know.

To watch you read, dance, sing and play, was always great to see,

You will always be our cute, cuddly little monchichi.

Now you are strong, intelligent, beautiful and almost fully grown,

Soon you will be off to college, and living on your own.

Remember that we love you and we are always proud to say,

That you are our angel, our daughter, on every single day.

With Love & Pride,

Chicopee Comprehensive High School June 2015 Graduation Extravaganza

The Battle of the Colors

By Aaliyah Walter-Drobiak

"Everyone can now report to the gymnasium." The announcement we all wait so eagerly for comes at last. Within seconds, kids pour out of their classrooms in all different directions and race down the stairs where to me, we resemble running M&Ms; the freshman in all green, the sophomores in red, juniors as bright as the sun; yellow, and of course the seniors as blue as the sky. This is the day we've all been waiting for! As I stand outside the gym, I ask junior Azzaria Bass, "Out of all Spirit Week days, which one is your favorite and why?"

She responded, "My favorite Spirit Week day would have to be Color Day because everyone represents their own class and it shows how much spirit your class has as a whole. And I love the rally that is held at the end of the day. I think it's the best part about Spirit Week because we are all competing but we also show support and cheer for other classes as well and it's a good way to go into Spring Break."

Today is the last day of spirit week where we have a rally at the end of the day. During this rally there are varieties of events where students from each grade compete > with the other classes. Depending on the events the winners receive a certain amount of points depending in which place you come in. The most points at Wicked stepmother Elizabeth Wozniak lays into Cinderella, played by Lauren Sittard.

"As the months went on, I grew closer to the cast and we became like a family."

Elizabeth

Wozniak

Lionel (Malik Burke) spreads the word about the prince's ball. The local maidens are ecstatic.

Stepsisters Danielle Gauthier, Olivia Chao and Nathalie Brault get emotional at the wedding.

"A Lovely Night" at Drama Club's Cinderelia

By Allison Lepine

For two and a half months, the cast and crew of Rodgers and Hammer-stein's Cinderella worked diligently to prepare for three spectacular performances that took place from April 9-11. The show told the classic fair-ytale of a shining prince falling in love with an overlooked girl after dancing with her at a ball. With no other clue than her glass slipper, the prince tries to find her again as her evil stepmother attempts to stop this love.

The lead role of Cinderella was played by senior Lauren Sittard, who sang multiple solos and duets along with her fairy godparent, Joel Roches, a junior, and Prince Christopher, Harper Laino, also a senior. Looking back on the performance, Lauren says, "I think it was a good show;

the cast and crew were amazing."

Junior Elizabeth Wozniak, who played Cinderella's stepmother, agrees that the play was an enjoyable experience, "As the months went on, I grew closer to the cast and we became like a family. Overall, after a few stressful months, the play went really well." Elizabeth also commented on her role saying that, "The stepmother was a really hard character to portray simply because she's such a mean character."

However, the show could not have been possible without the help of the talented backstage and technical crew and several members of the faculty. Cinderella goes down as another successful performance from the CCHS drama department and already next year's performance is eagerly awaited.

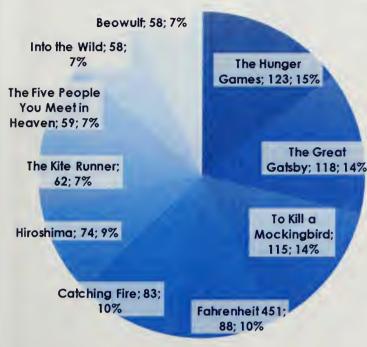

SPOILER ALERT! Cinderella (Lauren Sittard) and Prince Christopher (Harper Laino) are married by the Fairy Godparent (Joel Roches), and they all live happily ever after. Well, most of them, anyway.

How many students does it take to put on a musical? This many.

Most common advice to underclassmen about senior projects

Favorite CCHS Memories

- Boston Field trip sophomore year
- Going to Junior Prom
- Mr. Dwyer's Trig/Calculus class
- My best memories from CCHS are from Spirit Week. For me, winning dance off sophomore year and junior year were both amazing memories. Then winning spirit week our senior year was amazing and I'll never forget it.
- 2:09 every day
- Being on That 2015 Show this year
- Falling down the stairs the first day of freshman year.
- My best memory was spirit week when I ran out in the gym and played my ukulele in front of the whole school during Mr.CCHS
- Relay for Life
- Anatomy with Mrs. Hanna

- Meeting my best friend Emma
- Every day was a good memory.
- When Carlos got mad at Kyle for stealing his Cheetos and fruit snacks
- One of my funniest moments in class was when Mr. Sweeney destroyed a cell phone in AP Chemistry. After smashing it with a hammer, putting it in sulfuric acid and then burning it, the phone came out unrecognizable and we couldn't believe what he had done.
- "One Grande Cappuccino grass fed from Missouri for Aspiring Writer Colon!"
- Almost breaking a lapel mic during Grease because I squealed so loud.
- Dissecting sharks and squids, and having people overreact to cutting into an already dead shark/squid.

- My funniest moment in school would be when my self defense class took a picture and all you saw was my teeth.
- The funniest moment was when I was in Mr. Bellefeuille's class the first day of freshmen year my phone went off and the ringtone was "Sexy Grandpa Time" from that Geico commercial.
- Having a coughing contest in Miss. Eckert's class my junior year in which the whole class got involved in and her asking, "Ohh no folks, is there something going around?"
- Mrs. Bouyea's class Freshman year. Mrs. Lyon's class Sophomore year, Mr. Dwyer's class Junior year. Mr. Brown's class Senior year.

To my closest friends, I want to thank you all for showing me how there are genuine people who will always be there for you. Thanks for being such a great squad and I wish you all good luck next year! To Kathryn, Tiffany, Destiny, and Alyssa I want to leave all my science behind to you guys! Thanks for making anatomy class fun and I'll truly miss you all. To Ms. Hanna, thank you for inspiring me to go into the science field and knowing the answer to everything. To Ms. Boyer, thank you for teaching me so much during these years and being incredible. It's been real Comp thanks for the memories!

- Brianna Machnacz

Dear Squad, stay clutch. Dear Comp Puck, stay a family. Thanks for all the memories Comp, thanks for the Western Mass win my senior season boys! Best of luck to everyone.

-Colin Robinson

It saddens me to come to conclusion that the four years of my high school journey has ended. Coming to school all these years has been very exciting for me, because of the wonderful friends that were with me along the way. I leave behind my little sister Aaliyah, granted we share the same home, it will be hard not seeing her throughout the halls or bringing her home from school every day. I will miss all of the friends ive made these past years, and all of the ones that have been with me since Elementary school! Fair well comp!

-Desiree Walter-Drobiak

Looking back on my four years at CCHS I am truly grateful for the dedicated staff that made my experience so memorable. I want to thank my teachers in Machine Tool for helping me build so many wonderful work skills and also always encouraging me to do the best I can.

-Elizabeth Ryan

I just want to thank my teachers who taught me well throughout these 4 years, i will miss this school because it likes my home and I have very good friends. To all my friends out there I will miss you so much and I wish all of you the best of luck in your future endeavors

-Gregory St. Laurent

I would like to leave the opportunity to create a squad, much like mine, to the underclassmen. BYE SUCK-ERS!

-Kali Parvide

To my flute section, I leave you my stubbornness. I love you all and am proud of how well you have progressed this year. Ashlyn, I leave you the section. Make me proud girl! To the next publications class, don't stress... It will be okay. And whoever fills the EIC role behind me, you will create an amazing yearbook! I will forever cherish the memories in Freisberg's class and thank you to period four for helping me accomplish this yearbook! Finally to rooms 208 and 210, I will always hold the memories of being a peer mentor in your classes. I will miss you all and will never forget you.

-Jessica Major

To next year's AP Chemistry class, I leave you Mr. Sweeney. Enjoy his class while you're there and have fun! Make sure you know vour nomenclature. I leave the tennis team to Darren Kibler and Igor Kravchenko. You guys are awesome and I hope you do great next year. To whoever has Mr. Dwyer next year, good luck. To whoever has Mr. Sweeney for chemistry, good luck. To the juniors doing their senior project next year, good luck.

Justin Adamczyck

Wow. Four years have gone by and all I had been thinking about from the time l began high school was graduating. Now, I am. Many of my friends and teachers have made huge impacts on my life, and many of you don't know how much that means to me. I want to thank every single person who has impacted my life. I also want to say sorry to any of the people that I have hurt and I hope and wish for the very best for every single one of you. May you always strive to be the very best you can be and do the very best you can do. Never let anyone, or anything stop you. :)

-Miranda Jack

l leave this school to my lax bros Brady Seymour, Maxon Rivera, Quinn Wesolowski, Griffin Imelio, Jeff Barthelette, Brandon Pavoni. Don't let me down next season and thanks for the memories. Peace out boiiiii.

- Nick Hebert

Out of all four years here, there are very few memorable moments, but I will always remember them. I enjoyed meeting the people I have, and hope that they strive to reach their dreams. Things may be hard, but pushing through the situation will make you strong. Keep your head up, and be yourself. In the end everything will be okay. Enjoy the rest of your time here. Thank you!

- Ratricia Rikul

Four years of High school goes by quickly. You walk in as a freshman and think oh my gosh i have to be here for four years and all it will do is drag on. It will if you focus on how many days you have left. Focus on how much fun you'll have and focus on your school work, because by the time you know it, you'll be getting your diploma.

-Samara Smith

To everyone that has supported me throughout the years I wanna thank you for the love. To my best friend Brianna Machnacz I just wanna say i love you for you and you'll always be my fatty no matter what. To Ms. Bineau I wanna say thank you for the years of help and support. You saw me at my worst and one day you'll see me at my best.

- Sebastian Salloum

I leave Kevin Marafuga and Gaige Lafontaine in charge of keeping the cake alive on the swim team next year. I'm leaving my laugh and humor to the only person who can handle it, xx_ziana. And finally to the greatest group of people in Chicopee Comp, my group message, I love you all and leave you all of our great memories. Destine keep it classy for the ratchets Tiff lyss and Kathryn. Kathryn don't ever lose your obnoxious attitude lol. Tiff don't ever stop being annoyed. Stay disgusting Alyssa and thank you for being an incredible friend all of these years. If you don't like it you can leave.

- Stephen Arvanitis

I owe everything to Mrs. Hanna for putting up with me and leading me through high school for the last 3 years. She has always given me insight and personal advice to help me get through my mess of a life. I will always be grateful for that. Thank you!! See ya!

- Caylor Sontaine

I've shared some of my best memories at comp and developed many friendships. I'm going to miss all the teachers I've become friends with especially in the music department, You guys had a influence on me and inspired me to always work hard and theirs no limit in what i can do, thanks Mr. Blankstein and Ms. Borowiec. The past 4 years at comp have flew by much faster then I expected and I'll never forget all the laughs and memories.

- Cyler Ouzzone

To any underclassmen who may be reading this, I'd like to impart a few pieces of wisdom 1. Look for the good in Everything. It may be difficult sometimes, but we live in an amazing world. If you don't wake up every day being excited by something then you haven't looked hard enough. 2. Be all you can be. Nothing compares to the feeling of overcoming an obstacle and coming out on top. Finally, get to know your teachers. They have done it already and they have come back to help show you the way. There are some amazing teachers here at Comp and I'll always be honored to have been their student.

- William Saidi

I want to get a chance to thank all my teachers who taught me the past 4 years, for dealing with me. Good luck to the cross country team and the hockey team. It's been fun.

- Zachary Philbrick

To my sister, Lauren. You are so smart, kind and clever. You are going to do great things, I know you will. Keep writing, even when you don't know what to say. Keep your head up, no matter what because when it's down, you can't see the blessings coming up next. I leave you the court. Don't let anyone tell you're not good enough. To Lauren Jones, you are PRIME. You are my favorite sophomore, and you're going to be the best ElC ever your senior year. Don't take anyone's crap. I leave you my seat and my noodle addiction. Own it.

-Samantha Conner

I want to thank a few staff members. First off, my coaches. Mr. Dobson, Mr. Couture (Dad), and Mr. Stevens. I couldn't express my gratitude for you guys even if I tried. To Mrs. O, Shurf, Mr. Jendrysik, and Mr. Rosario. You've all been so helpful, thank you for putting up with me on a daily basis. Sports wise, I leave Dasia #12 for basketball and Missy #12 for lax. I would also like to shout out Kaylee, Lyss, Bre, Kath, Leesh, and Molly. Keep being awesome. To Kaylee in particular, you can do Dayleey all by yourself. Also make sure RRP lives on in memory of Erin, Lex, and 1. Ashley: 1 leave you and Sam Spagnoli my basketball responsibilities. I love you all and remember, even when we're bad, we are good.

- Destime Montano

Thank You

Mrs. Gelinas & Mr. Laing

Through thick and thin, our advisors never gave up on us. Taking on 2015 was not an easy task, yet they worked hard to make our senior year truly memorable. Thank you, Ms. Gelinas and Mr. Laing. We will miss you.

Mr. Szydlo & Mr. Syriac

Congratulations on your retirement! May the years ahead bring you great happiness!

Parting Words from the Editor- in- Chief

Making a yearbook is hard. Meeting deadlines, tasking pictures, getting interviews, it's all very difficult. For someone like me who has no artistic talent, no knowledge about cameras, and absolutely no idea of "art" it is really stressful to be given responsibility like this and be expected to get results. At first, I felt like a fish out of water, a lion without a pride, a girl without Starbucks. But I didn't realize that I had one of the best staffs anyone could ask for at my back.

If I was asked what my thoughts on this year in publications was like I wouldn't be able to answer. I couldn't because I hardly remember my breakfast today, but mostly because I couldn't find enough words to describe this year. My staff is probably reading this and thinking, "This is what that guy who brought us cookies was thinking?" and they'd be surprised. I never openly congratulated or praised my staff. I didn't because I didn't think they needed praise. I thought it would be like telling the sun it's the hottest thing around. I already knows. But it doesn't feel right leaving them like this. So I'll say it. You guys did one hell of a job and deserve much more than just a grade in a class. I can't thank you all enough for everything you've done, every "thank you" you gave me when I gave you treats, every picture you took, and every hour you spent building what has culminated into this fantastic book.

To anybody not on yearbook staff that is still reading this let me say cherish that book you just got because of all the blood, sweat and tears that is in every page of it. It's not just a yearbook. It is OUR yearbook and to us it is something that will never stop being a great memory. I'm a little slow so I couldn't turn my senior will in on time. Luckily for me, being Editor-in-Chief has its perks. Here it is below.

To my Chinese class I leave quizzes upon quizzes upon quizzes, I hope you finish them. To Brit, I leave you the blackout button. Try not to press it too much. To every person I never met, I leave a fine "How do you do?" To Ms. Freisberg I leave the grief of dealing with kids without me. And finally, to next year's Yearbook Staff I leave these words. The yearbook is a magical thing. Through this you can either bring together or destroy everybody in the school. I pray you choose the former. Farewell Chicopee Comprehensive High School. Please never change.
